CONSTITUTION OF
THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University
Daytona Beach Florida
Student Government Association

This SGA Constitution has been last amended and ratified effective 17 September 2013.
Preamble:

We, the students of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University establish this constitution as a guide for the Student Government Association to provide a voice for the student opinions concerning the affairs of the University. Additionally, it develops a framework around which students may respond to the challenges of a democratic society through the process of elective student government. Through this constitution, the SGA will uphold individual responsibilities while acknowledging the professional principles upon which this university was founded.

Grant of Power:

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University hereby grants the Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University Student Government Association the right to exist and act on behalf of the student body in its goals to facilitate and promote student life and services, to collect fees from the student body to finance its student services, to maintain offices and operations on campus, and to have a member serve on the board of trustees.

The following shall be considered SGA Officials:

a. SGA President
b. SGA Vice-President
c. Treasurer
d. Chief Justice
e. Student Representative Board (SRB) Members
f. Student Finance Board (SFB) Members
g. Associate Justices
h. SGA Division Executive Board Members
i. Director of Internal Affairs
j. Director of External Affairs
Article II:  Branches of the SGA

Section 1.  The Executive Branch

The Executive Branch shall be composed of the SGA President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Chief Justice, Director of Internal Affairs, Director of External affairs, and Division Chairpersons. Its purpose is to ensure that the overall mission of the SGA is carried out.

Section 2.  The Legislative Branch

The Legislative Branch shall be composed of the Student Representative Board and the Student Finance Board. Its purpose is to be the policy and decision-making body within the SGA, to represent student’s interests and viewpoints, and to make responsible financial decisions.

Section 3.  The Judicial Branch

The Judicial Branch is composed of the Student Court members. Its purpose is to protect the rights of the student body and to advise them of their rights and responsibilities within the parameters of the University policies and procedures manual. It also renders interpretations of the SGA Constitution.
Article III: Divisions of the SGA

Section 1. Divisions

In order to enhance student life, the SGA will maintain the following divisions:

a. The Avion Newspaper
b. Touch-N-Go Productions
c. The WIKD 102.5 FM

Section 2. Rules Governing Divisions

Each division will have current bylaws or other governing documents on file in the SGA office. No provision or interpretation of these bylaws shall conflict with the SGA Constitution.

Section 3. Process for Adding a Division

a. Any prospective division will submit a proposed copy of its bylaws to the SRB which must in turn be approved by a 2/3 vote.

b. A proposed budget must be approved by the SFB with a 2/3 vote.

c. Once the criteria in parts a and b are satisfied, then the prospective division will be voted upon for the Constitution change in accordance with Article VIII section 2.

d. The group will be considered a division when all the above criteria are met.

Section 4. Process for Removing a Division

a. Any SGA member may initiate the removal process.

b. The member must submit a detailed written request to the SRB and the SFB.

c. The division will cease to exist after a 2/3 vote of the SRB and SFB to remove it.

d. Any decision may be appealed within five school days to the Student Court.
Article IV: Auxiliaries of the SGA

Section 1: Auxiliaries

For those students that wish to become involved in the SGA without being officiated, the SGA will maintain the following auxiliaries:

a. First-Year Initiative

Section 2. Definition

Auxiliaries are units of the SGA that are overseen and managed by SGA Officials. The primary purpose of auxiliaries is to encourage involvement with the SGA.

d. Maintain the power to levy fines and recommend probation, suspension, or dismissal.

e. Any interpretation issued by the Student Court will remain in effect for one year from the date of interpretation and will be documented and kept by the Student Court.
Article VI: Resignation, Removal, and Impeachment

Section 1. Resignation

Officials of the SGA reserve unto themselves the right to cease their duties by letter of resignation delivered to the SGA Executive Board at any time during their term of office.

Section 2. Absences and Removal

a. Any official of the SGA accumulating three unexcused absences from regular meetings in one semester shall automatically be removed from office.

1. Regular meetings include scheduled branch and division meetings, general session meetings scheduled with at least four (4) weeks prior notice, committee meetings as assigned by their chair, and any event made mandatory by the chair and scheduled with at least 2 weeks prior notice.

2. An absence may be excused by the chair of that particular board or committee prior to the absence or within a week following the absence.

3. Tardiness of more than ten (10) minutes to a regular meeting shall result in 1/3 of an unexcused absence. Tardiness of more than thirty (30) minutes shall result in an unexcused absence.

4. The missing of a special or emergency meeting shall result in 1/3 of an unexcused absence.

5. The missing of the SGA Retreat shall result in up to 1 and a 1/2 unexcused absences at the discretion of the chair of that board.

6. Absences not excused by the chair of that particular board or committee may be appealed to the Student Court within five (5) business days.

7. The ruling of the Student Court regarding absences may be appealed to the SGA Advisor, whose decision shall be final.

b. Placement on disciplinary probation, as defined in the current University Catalog or Student Handbook, will result in immediate removal from an office. The SGA Advisor will monitor holders of any official SGA position to ensure none are serving probation.

c. Failure to maintain a minimum of six credit hours per semester will result in immediate and automatic dismissal from an official position in the SGA.

d. Failure to maintain at least a 2.5 cumulative grade point average (CGPA) will result in immediate and automatic dismissal from an official position in the SGA.

Section 3. Impeachment

Any official of the SGA who fails in their duties and responsibilities or abuses the power of their office may be impeached.
a. Any official of the SGA may submit a written charge of impeachment to the Student Court against any official of the SGA. Written charge shall include specific constitutional evidence.

b. Any member of the SGA may submit a written charge of impeachment to the Student Court against any official of the SGA. Written charge shall include specific constitutional evidence and a petition containing the signatures of fifty (50) Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University students.

c. The Student Court will then notify the person being charged for impeachment and in two weeks conduct a hearing at which the person being charged may submit any evidence to their defense. A 2/3 vote of the Student Court is required for the impeachment of the person to be carried out.

d. If the person charged with impeachment feels that their rights were violated, then they may file an appeal with the SGA Advisor within five (5) school days. The SGA Advisor will then call for a joint meeting of the SRB and SFB in which a 2/3 vote is required to overturn the impeachment ruling.

e. If new evidence pertaining to the impeachment case arises that could have been submitted in the impeachment hearing but wasn’t through no fault of the Complainant or the Respondent, then the Respondent may appeal a Responsible verdict with the SGA Chief Justice within five (5) school days. The SGA Chief Justice will then assemble the Student Court and hold a re-trial.

f. In the event a Student Court member fails in their duties and responsibilities or abuses the power of their office they may be removed at the discretion of the SGA Chief Justice.

g. If the Student Court member feels that their rights were violated, then they may file an appeal with the SGA Advisor within five (5) school days. The SGA Advisor will then call for the remaining Associate Justices to hear the case which shall be chaired by the SGA President in which a 2/3 vote is required to appeal the SGA Chief Justice’s decision.
Article VII: Election Process

Section 1. Election’s Committee Chairman

It shall be the duty of the SGA President to appoint an Election’s Committee chairman no later than the 2nd week of the Spring semester. The appointment shall be approved by both a 2/3 vote of the SRB and a separate 2/3 vote of the SFB. Should either body fail to approve the appointment with a 2/3 vote, then the appointment fails.

Section 2. Guidelines

The elections shall follow the Student Election Committee Bylaws; any changes to the Student Election Committee Bylaws must be done in accordance with the procedure outlined within the Student Election Committee Bylaws.

Section 3. Elections Committee

The Election Committee will be appointed by the Election’s Committee chairman. The Election Committee holds the power involved in running all aspects of the election.

Section 4. Qualifications to be appointed or elected to an Official position

a. Must not be on academic or judiciary probation as defined in the current University Catalog and Student Handbook.

b. Must have and maintain at least a 2.5 cumulative grade point average (CGPA).

c. Must attest, in writing, to the intent of remaining a registered student pursuing not less than six credit hours for the Spring and Fall semesters on the Daytona Beach campus throughout his/her term in office.

d. Meet all other requirements as set forth in the Student Election Committee Bylaws for the position they are running for.

Section 5. Executive Officer’s Ticket

a. The following Executive Officers shall be elected as a ticket during the General Election:

   1. President
   2. Vice-President
   3. Treasurer

b. No one shall qualify for elected Executive Office unless he/she has completed 2 semesters of no less than six credit hours each. For the purpose of meeting this qualification, summer terms A and B combined comprise one complete semester. However, a student must be enrolled for at least three credit hours per summer term.

c. Regarding Executive Branch Member summer obligations.
1. The SGA President must serve office hours for the entire academic year, including all summer semesters. The President may not participate in summer abroad activities, internships, or Co-ops, except where provided by section 3 or 5 of this paragraph.

2. All other Executive Branch Members may participate in summer internships or Co-ops provided they are based in the continental 48 states.

3. All Executive Branch Members may participate in documented military obligations.

4. No more than two Executive Branch Members may be excused at any given time under this section provided there are no extenuating circumstances.

5. Any Executive Branch Member with extenuating circumstances may be excused for up to two weeks with approval by the SGA Advisor and the Chief Justice.

6. All Executive Branch Members are subject to these procedures when absent due to summer obligations. Failure to maintain these standards will result in the forfeiture of the executive position.

   i. All internships and Co-ops must be approved by the SGA Advisor.

   ii. An individual from the respective board must be appointed by the outgoing Executive Branch Member to act on their behalf.

      A. This person will gain all rights and responsibilities of the position during the absence of the Executive Branch Member.

      B. The appointed interim is subject to practices defined under Article V, and upon removal from office, will revert to their previous position. A new interim must then be appointed.

      C. Weekly contact between the Executive Branch Member and their interim must be established and maintained.

      D. Meet all other requirements as set forth in the Student Election Committee Bylaws for the position they are running for.

Section 6. Chief Justice Appointment

The Chief Justice position shall be appointed by the President and approved by a 2/3 vote of the SRB and SFB. The Chief Justice shall serve a term to last no more than two academic years.
Section 7. Student Court Members

Student Court members shall not run for any SGA position unless they have previously resigned their Student Court position.

Section 8. Terms of Office

The term of office of all elected officials shall be approximately one year to begin at the annual SGA Awards Banquet held each Spring. Before taking office, each SGA official must be sworn in by the Chief Justice with the following oath of office:

“I, (state your full name), do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of (state name of office) of the Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University Student Government Association in accordance with the Constitution, Bylaws, and Code of Conduct. I shall, to the best of my ability, faithfully represent those students who elected me to this office.”

Section 9. Vacancies of Office

a. Should a vacancy occur in the Office of the President, the Vice-President shall assume the duties of the President and the Vice-President position shall be filled according to subpart b of this section.

b. A vacancy of the Vice-President or the Treasurer shall be filled by an election within the SRB and the SFB respectively. Both positions shall be approved by a 2/3 vote of the SRB and SFB.

c. Should there at one time be a simultaneous vacancy of both the President and the Vice-President, the President position shall be filled by an election within the SRB and SFB and approved by a 2/3 vote of the SRB and SFB. The Vice-President position shall be filled according to subpart b of this section.

Section 10. Re-Elections

a. All persons holding elected positions (incumbents) are eligible for re-election provided eligibility criteria have been met. However, they may not serve on the Elections Committee and may not vote on the eligibility criteria.

b. No individual may declare eligibility for more than one elected position.

Section 11. Records

a. The Elections Committee shall keep a file containing committee procedures and election results and submit an evaluation report to the SGA President for the reference of future committees.

b. An official record of the election results will remain a part of the records in the SGA office for two years under the protection of the SGA Advisor.

c. Election ballots will be disposed of as per the Student Election Committee Bylaws.
Article VIII: SGA Fee Adjustment

Section 1. Review

a. A proposal for increasing the SGA fee may be presented by any SGA member.

b. The SFB shall conduct a financial review of the SGA to determine the need and/or feasibility of an SGA fee adjustment.

c. The SFB will conduct this review as necessary and shall submit its recommendation to the SRB in a timely manner.

Section 2. Approval

a. Upon a 2/3 vote of the SRB approving the adjustment, the recommendation shall be forwarded to the President of the SGA.

b. The SGA President shall consider the recommendation and either approve and pass the recommendation to the University Fee Advisory Committee for final approval, or veto the recommendation.
Article IX: Amendments to the Constitution

Section 1. Purpose

Amendments to this Constitution may be necessary in order to maintain consistent and impartial service to the students of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University's Daytona Beach Campus.

Section 2. Process

a. Amendments to this Constitution may be initiated by any student and presented to the SGA Vice-President.

b. All potential changes to the Constitution need to be approved by a 2/3 vote in a joint session of the SRB, SFB, and division chairpersons.

c. The approved changes will be advertised to the students for a period of one (1) week.

   1. The advertisement shall be made in “The Avion” and using the SGA standard flyer.

   2. Posting of the SGA standard flyer shall conform to the Student Activities Guidelines.

   3. Instructions to students detailing Article VIII, Section 2, Part d of the SGA Constitution shall also be included in the advertisement.

d. The amendment shall be adopted if, within two weeks of the vote, no petition for veto has been filed with the Chief Justice. The petition for veto must contain the signatures of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University students equal to twenty-five percent of the turn out in the last general election.
Article X: Ratification

Section 1. Definition

Ratification of this Constitution shall require a 2/3 affirmative vote in a referendum, in accordance with Article VIII, Sections 1-2, after which the amendment shall be considered part of this Constitution immediately.

Section 2. Endorsements

This Constitution has been last amended and ratified effective 17 September 2013.
