Meeting starts at 7:01

Officer Reports

(New member introduces himself)

Andre introduces himself at the meeting and asks everyone “Why are you here?” Overall, he is glad that everyone is joining organizations and getting involved on campus.

Mark Millimet (Chairperson) – I wish you all a happy Thursday! (Talks about each event)

Dustin Gibson (Vice-Chairperson) – No report

Jesse Zumek (Administrative Coordinator) – Just want to say please be careful with your drinks and food in the office end report

Alex Blymire (Productions Manager) – So I went ahead and fixed the stairs today. Just be careful because the step seems a little sharper, but it no longer wobbles. We will talk about stage training when we get down to it.

Virat Parikh (Promotions Coordinator) – (Not here)

Gopi Thotakura (Security Coordinator) - Tonight we have Tammy in the IC Aud. If you want to be dealer or have a friend that wants to be dealer, tell them to come to the TNG Office sometime next week.

Keith Alvares (Budget Manager) - No Report

Taylor Fazzini (Hospitality Coordinator) – Is there anyone not coming out for the event tomorrow? (Only a couple of the people in the audience raise their hand)

Mu’az Pawane (Sound) – We have ordered some sound equipment. We are expecting to use a couple of the things we ordered for Rocktober.

Jessica Searcy (Advisor) – One quick thing, I just want to talk about blue and gold week. We are trying something new this year. Instead of Homecoming King and Queen, we are having Blue and Gold ambassadors. If you are part of another organization, you can nominate someone in that group to be an ambassador. Or you can nominate someone in TNG. TEAM GOLD!
Event Review

Stage Training | Student Center
Saturday, September 20\(^{th}\)
1:00pm – 3:00pm

Mark – How many of you attended stage training?
(People raise their hands)
Mark – Does anyone have any feedback for the event?
Carl – I thought the division of groups was a good idea
Mark – Anything else? So if you have any questions regarding the equipment please do not hesitate to ask
Alex – How many of you learned something?
(Nearly everyone raises their hand)
Alex – So that was my goal and I am really glad that I could make that happen.
Moo – I think the event went really well. Yeah like Carl said I really like how we divided the two large groups into smaller ones.

Co-Sponsorships

Monte Carlo Night | Lambda Chi Alpha
Student Center | September 27\(^{th}\) | 8:00pm
Setup 5:00pm | Security 7:30pm | Dealers 7:00pm

Mark – Like Gopi said if you know anyone that can deal, please have them come to the office so we can let them know when we will be meeting up before the event to talk about the details. Also, keep in mind that you can play the games, but you cannot win any prizes at the event because you are working with TNG. We do not want people thinking that the drawing is a set up.

Event Advance

IC 101 | September 18\(^{th}\) | 8:30pm
Security Call 8:00pm

Seriously Funny Comedy Series | Jen Kober & Jenny Zigrino

Mark – Tomorrow is the return of the Comedy series
Everyone - WOO!
Alex - So I will not be here tomorrow and Robert will be the temporary Productions manager for the two events this weekend. Please give him your utmost respect.

Chairperson: Mark Millimet

RockTober | Ryan Star & Stealing Vanity
West Lawn | Friday, October 3rd | 8:00pm
Stage Drop 2:30pm | Sound Drop 3:00pm
Band Load-In 4:00pm | Sound Check 6:30pm

Mark – Rocktober
Everyone - WOO!
Mark - By the way if it rains, our backup will be the Student Center. If you notice on the agenda, stage drop is at 2:30 and that is because it will take some time to level the stage and do a sound check. However, if you have class that comes first. Look forward to seeing you guys next Friday. Our goal is to start on time.
Moo – Just want to say, tear down is really hectic that day. If you do not know how to wrap a cable, please don't and ask someone for help. I would rather you wrap one cable correctly than have a cable nest to deal with the next morning.

Blue & Gold Week –

The meeting for Airjam is next Wed night. So if you are involved in another group on campus, get that group together and get involved in an amazing dancing and lip-syncing competition. Are there any questions for Airjam?
